The Mayor submitted the following message:

Mayor's Office, Martin, Tex., Aug. 17.
Gentlemen of the City Council -

I respectfully call your attention to the fact that many of our citizens have been brought into the City by our new Charter and are anxious to have the benefits of the mail carrier system, and I hand you herewith a letter from Post master J.C. Debress, asking for a statement giving the additions lately made to the City and the names of the new streets and numbers of houses, in order that he may make application to the post office department for additional carrier service.

Believing this to be a matter of importance to our citizens that should receive prompt attention, I recommend that the City Engineer be authorized and instructed to name the new streets and roads, and number the houses in the recent additions to the City as soon as possible, and that he be authorized to employ such assistance as may be necessary to complete the work.

I further state that Dr W.H. Tobin and Judge J.W. Smith, who were elected members of the Board of Equalization at the last meeting of the City Council, have declined to serve in that capacity, and I present the names of Messrs. W.M. Milby and L.D. Brooks, and recommend their election to fill the vacancies on said board.

Very Respectfully,

John McDonald,

mayor.

Alderman North moved that the City Engineer be instructed to furnish the information wanted by Post master Debress, employing such assistance, under direction of the Mayor, as may be necessary to obtain the same. Carried.

The mayor then withdrew the name of L.D. Brooks, and nominated H. Shirshfeld in his stead.

Alderman North then moved that W.M. Milby and H. Shirshfeld be elected members of the Board of Equalization by acclamation. Carried.

The following Ordinances were then introduced:

The report was adopted.

AND. 1. 4. 2.

Mr. Norman Anderson entered the Council and announced to his name.

A Sherman letter from the Committee for Taxes and Accents, to whom was referred "the Ordinance to regulate the progress of all taxes laid thereon," directed; presented a report recommending the passing of the same with the following amendment to include Article 2 of said Ordinance, viz:

Section 2. That in mailing out the list of delinquent taxpayers of the City of Austin for the year 1890, to be used by the City Attorney as the basis of suits to be instituted to recover taxes from such delinquent taxpayers, no costs shall be charged against same except the actual cost of advertising the property of such taxpayers for sale for such taxes.

The report was laid over to be taken up with the Ordinance named therein.

March 10. Alderman Carlton - for the Committee on Claims and accounts, to whom was referred a communication from Hon. George F. Pendexter, City Attorney, advising the payment of the judgments recovered against the City by Mrs. Shipe and J. S. Wells; July 3, submitted a report thereon, opposing the payment of said judgments and recommending that the City Attorney be instructed to take all necessary steps to retry the cases in the County Court, important witnesses for the City not having been examined during the trials which resulted in verdicts against the City.

The report was adopted.

March 10. Alderman Morris - for the Committee on Ordinances, to whom was referred the three Ordinances introduced in the Council on the 17th inst. proposing to amend the Ordinances relating to the right-of-way over the streets of Austin of W. M. Shipe and associates, presented a report recommending the adoption of a substitute for the three Ordinances.

The report was laid over to be taken up with the Ordinances named therein.

Unfinished Business.

Alderman Linn moved that the regular order of business be dispensed with for the purpose of considering unfinished business. The motion prevailed and the following named Ordinances were taken up on their second reading and read:

An Ordinance amending Section 11 of an Ordinance Entitled "An Ordinance granting the right-of-way to W. M. Shipe, his associates and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate street railways along certain streets and avenues in the City of Austin."

An Ordinance amending Section 1 of an Ordinance Entitled "An Ordinance amending an Ordinance Entitled 'An Ordinance granting the right-of-way to W. M. Shipe, his associates and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate street railways along certain streets and avenues in the City of Austin,'" approved August 7, 1890.

An Ordinance repealing Section 1 of an Ordinance entitled "An Ordinance granting the right-of-way to W. M. Shipe, his associates and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate street railways along certain streets and avenues in the City of Austin," approved April 26, 1890.

Alderman Carlton moved the adoption of the substitute reported by the Committee on Ordinances which is Entitled "An Ordinance to amend and combine into one Ordinance all Ordinances of the City pertaining to the grant of the right-of-way over the streets of Austin to W. M. Shipe, his associates and assigns, which inured to the benefit of the Austin Rapid Transit Company." The motion prevailed.

Alderman Nitecola moved that the substitute be printed in the minutes of the City Council and lie over until the next regular meeting of said Council.

Alderman Nitschke moved as a Substitute that the report of the Ordinance Committee together with the Substitute be printed in the Evening News next Monday. The Substitute was adopted.

Alderman Morris then moved that the Council stand adjourned until next Tuesday at 8:30 o'clock, p.m.

Alderman Nitschke moved to amend the motion by striking out "Tuesday" and inserting in lieu thereof "Wednesday". The amendment was lost by a rising vote of 5 to 10. The motion made by Alderman Morris was then adopted.

Milton Morris,
City Clerk.

The Minutes of an adjourned meeting of the City Council.

Austin, Texas August, 25, 1891.

Hon. John Mc Donald, mayor, presiding

V. 11
Roll Call. Present: Aldermen Anderson, Esemann, Glass, Hume, Jackson, Morris, Nitchele, North, Phillips,
Platt, Schuler, Weyerman, Ziller. - 14.

Absent: Aldermen Carleton, Graham, Ketchum, Linn, Newton, Schneider, Suter, Townsend. - 8.

At this right of way. By unanimous Consent an Ordinance Entitled "An Ordinance to amend and Condense into One Ordinance all Ordinances of the City pertaining to the grant of the right-of-way over the streets of Austin to M. M. Shipe, his associates and assigns, which inured to the benefit of the Austin Rapid Transit Railway Company," was taken up, it having been read a second time August 22, 1891.

Alderman Nitchele moved to amend Section two by adding
the following:

"Provided that the City of Austin shall have the right to authorize the owner of any electric street railroad to which a right-of-way may hereafter be granted by the City Council to use the tracks of said Austin Rapid Transit Railway Company on Congress Avenue. Provided that prior to such use, the party desiring to use the same shall pay to the said Austin Rapid Transit Railway Company one-half of the original cost of such tracks, and shall give satisfactory security, to pay one-half the cost of maintaining said tracks during the time they are so used."

Ald. Suter.

Call of Council.

Alderman Suter entered the Council and answered to his name.

Alderman Anderson moved a Call of the Council which was duly adopted, and the Marshal sent after the absentee.

Suspended. Call. Lost.
Ald. Enter.

Alderman Suter moved to suspend the Call of the Council. Lost.
Aldermen Townsend, Ketchum, Newton, and Schneider, entered the Council and answered to their names.

Alderman Schuler moved to suspend the Call of the Council and the motion prevailed by a rising vote of 10 to 8.

Ald. Carleton.

Alderman Carleton entered the Council and answered to his name.

At this right of way. It was then moved that the amendment offered by Alderman Nitchele, which is above set forth, be adopted. The amendment was defeated by the following vote:

Yea - Aldermen Glass, Hume,
Ketchum, Newton, Nitchele, Schneider, Wingfield, Ziller. - 8.
Nay - Aldermen Anderson, Esemann, Carleton, Jackson, Morris,
North, Phillips, Platt, Schuler, Suter, Townsend, Weyerman. - 12.
Alderman Hume offered the following amendment to be added to Section two:

Provided, that where a single track is laid it shall be placed in the center of the street, and where two tracks are laid they shall be placed as near the center of the street as practicable.

After the amendment has been discussed the mayor put the question, "are you ready for the question?", to which several Aldermen answered, "the question". The Mayor then put the pending amendment, on the adoption and rejection of which the Council voted Viva Voce, but before the decision of the Chair was announced some Alderman demanded the yeas and nays, and the mayor directed the Clerk to call the roll. At this point Alderman Phillips claimed the floor saying, that he was upon the floor for recognition by the Chair before the Chair put the pending amendment to a vote. The Chair stated that he did not see Alderman Phillips upon the floor at the time, and therefore ruled that he, at this time, was out of order. Alderman Phillips appealed from the decision of the Chair, which resulted in the Chair being Sustained. The amendment offered by Alderman Stume was then adopted by the following vote:

Yea- Aldermen Anderson, Assemann, Glass, Stume, Jackson, Ketchum, Morris, Newton, Nitschke, Platt, Schneider, Schuber, Carter Townsend, Weyerman, Wingfield, Ziller - 17.

Nay- Aldermen Carleton, North, Phillips - 3.

Alderman Phillips presented the following amendment to Section 6, to be inserted after the second period: The additional or second track to be placed on Congress Avenue shall be placed not more than six feet east of the present track as now located.

The amendment was adopted by a rising vote of 11 to 4. Alderman Morris moved that the Ordinance do now pass to its third reading and the motion prevailed. The Ordinance was then read a third time.

It was then moved that the Ordinance do now pass and the motion was adopted by the following vote:

Yea- Aldermen Anderson, Assemann, Carleton, Glass, Stume, Jackson, Morris, Newton, North, Phillips, Platt, Schuber, Carter, Townsend, Weyerman, Wingfield - 16.

Nay- Aldermen Ketchum, Nitschke, Schneider, Ziller - 4.

On motion the Council then adjourned.

Milton Morris,
City Clerk.
